The above may be sanctioned.

According to the Civil Service Regulations under the Appointment by Candidate has to be given to one of the two Civil Service Officers of the Accounts Dept. Mr. V. R. Krishnaswamy Iyengar is the senior among the two Civil Service Officers and on such according to the strict interpretation of the order is no doubt eligible for the appointment as it is proposed to appoint Mr. Sivaraman in the other vacancy. But I may be permitted to point out a few difficulties in

Submitted to His Highness.

Mr. Bishtopanth Badami who was given extension of service for one year has applied for 4 months and 23 days combined leave preparatory to retirement presumably because it has been decided to pass him over by appointing Mr. Shamanna as Comptroller.

2 The Comptroller recommends that Mr. K.R.Krishnaswami Iyengar may be appointed to officiate as Deputy Comptroller in that vacancy and Mr. V. Narayana Iyengar, Senior Superintendent may be appointed to act as Assistant Comptroller in place of Mr.K.R.Krishnaswami Iyengar.

3 According to para 15 of the Civil Service Re-organisation order No.757-807/C.B.210-23-1 dated 22nd September 1924 the post of Deputy Comptroller and Auditor, Mysore Railways, is open to a Civilian as well as non-Civilian Assistant Comptroller, but one of these two posts, it is stated, will ordinarily be filled up by a non-Civilian.

4 His Highness has approved of the appointment of Mr. M. A. Singrachar to act as Auditor, Mysore Railways. The appointment of Mr. K.R.Krishnaswami Iyengar has been recommended apparently on the assumption that a non-Civilian is entitled to one of these two posts.

5 There is another senior officer in the Department belonging to the Civil Service - Mr. A.N.Raghavachar - who has practically, since his appointment in the service, been in the Accounts Department and has received special training in finance. He is also officiating as Senior Assistant Commissioner and is therefore really senior to Mr. Krishnaswami Iyengar who is drawing Rs.425 per mensem while Mr.Raghavachar is getting Rs.500 per mensem. At present, however, both the Deputy Comptroller, Civil Branch, and the Auditor, Mysore Railways, are officers of the Civil Service. Though Mr.Bishtopanth Badami has all along been in the Accounts Department, he was shown in the Civil Service Cadre. Mr.Raghavachar has been specially trained in the Accounts Department and retained there so that he may become specially qualified for the higher posts in the Department. He has himself expressed a desire for reversion to the general Department. I am not prepared to sanction this as Mr.Raghavachar has no previous experience of the Revenue Department nor does he seem to be physically cut out for the duties of an executive officer. Mr.Singrachar is pretty old. We have to look ahead and train up a younger officer for the Comptroller's place when the appointment next becomes vacant. Mr.K.R.Krishnaswami Iyengar can have no real grievance if, on the present occasion, the appointment of the Deputy Comptroller is given to a Civil Service Officer and he ~~be~~ is given an opportunity for further promotion to a higher grade when the next vacancy occurs in the department.

6 The matter was informally considered in Council, and it was decided to appoint Mr.Raghavachar to officiate as Deputy Comptroller, Civil Branch, and the Second Member of Council agreed to consult Mr.Shamanna the Comptroller designate, as to the officer he would select to the Railway Audit Department in place of Mr.Raghavachar, and whether Mr.Raghavachar should be retained in the Railway Audit Department or given an opportunity to have more varied training by being transferred to the Civil Branch. Mr.Shamanna also suggests that Mr.Raghavachar may be appointed as Deputy Comptroller, Civil Branch, and Mr.Ganapathy Iyer transferred to the Railway Audit Section.

7 The First Member of Council has agreed to these proposals. I solicit His Highness's sanction (a) to withdraw the order sanctioning extension of service to Mr.Bishtopanth Badami, granting him whatever leave he is entitled to, preparatory to retirement, immediately and (b) to appoint Mr.Raghavachar to officiate as Deputy Comptroller, Civil Branch, in that vacancy.

Sir,

In continuation of this office letter No.66/Comp. dated 4th June 1926, recommending the appointment of Mr. K. R. Krishnaswami Iyengar as officiating Deputy Comptroller in place of Mr. L. Bishtopunth Badami who has applied for 4 months and 23 days combined leave preparatory to retirement, I have the honor to request that Mr. V. Narayana Iyengar, Senior Superintendent, who has been recommended in this office letter No. 1161/ES. 32. 26 for ~~officiating~~ as Assistant Comptroller during the absence of Mr. M. Viraraj Urs on one month's privilege leave, may kindly be continued to act as Assistant Comptroller in place of Mr. Krishnaswami Iyengar in addition to the special duty on compilation of Codes. So long as he is entrusted with the latter duty in addition to his appointment as officiating Assistant Comptroller, he may draw the Deputation Allowance at 1/5 of his salary in addition to his salary of Rs.250/- as officiating Assistant Comptroller and this arrangement will also reduce the cost of compilation of Code by Rs.250/- per mensem.

2. Mr. Narayana Iyengar has already acted on several occasions as Assistant Comptroller.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

16.6.26.

Dear Sir,

In accordance with our talk yesterday, I beg to state that, if it is necessary to transfer one of the two officers Messrs Raghava Char and Singla char to the Civil Branch of the Comptroller's Office and appoint the other as Auditor Railways, it is desirable to transfer Mr Raghava char to the Civil Branch and keep Mr Singlachar in the Railway audit office for the reasons given below.

(1) Mr Raghava Chari has not put in about twelve years of service. The almost the whole of this period has been spent by him in the Railway Audit office. In a small service like ours we want men with all round Experience and ~~cannot afford the loss of services~~ It is necessary that Mr Raghavachari should spend some time in the important Sections of the Comptroller's Office Civil Branch, as he will then be the most Senior officer in the Accounts Department next to Mr.

Singlachar, and it is not desirable to keep him for ever in one office.

(2) If Mr Singlachar had been longer in the Railway audit office and had learnt more of its technicalities, it might have been better - But the little deficiency in this respect is made up by his personal capacity, wide knowledge of men and things and by general Experience - With an assistant who knows the details of the work of the audit office, he can run the office At present there is only one officer who has served in Railway accounts and knows it well viz Mr E.V. Ganapathi Iyer If he is posted to the Railway audit office in the place of Mr A.N. Raghavachar, Mr Sanjivachar will I think be able to get on with the work with his assistance

Another way in which the Audit office could be strengthened, - which I forgot to mention to you yesterday - is by transferring Mr G.V. Rangathan from the Agents office to the Audit Office as Asstt Auditor - if it is possible to make the Agent agree to it -

Yours sincerely
S. Shanmukha.
